

English Ambassadors

"I can shake off everything as I write; my sorrows disappear, my courage is reborn."

- Anne Frank

Who Are They?

Each class has an English Ambassador and they work together as a team with the English Staff Team and the Reading Ambassadors. The Ambassadors each have a fabulous attitude to writing and are so keen to help others to improve their own skills, knowledge and understanding.

What They Do?

Our English ambassadors work hard throughout the year to promote a love of quality writing and instil a sense of pride in our work. They hold 'writing conferences' with children across school to celebrate and improve their individual, independent work. They also play a key role in challenges such as spelling bees, our Christmas letter competition and presentation awards. English ambassadors write some quality articles during the year and work alongside other ambassadors to present information to the whole school community.

How They Make A Difference?

As part of their role they:

- Celebrate English achievements across school.
- Introduce competitions and new ideas.
- Raise the profile of English in school
- Lead activities relating to English.
- Give other pupils a voice and help them to share their ideas.
- Support other members of our school community in English.
- Help promote neat Handwriting.
- Give ideas on how to improve spelling.
