

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Spotlight on Assessment

How can we gather Religious Education data for our pupils...

As many schools and teachers recognise, the curriculum is more than curriculum areas and subjects: it is the totality of experiences which are planned for children and young people through their education – a canvas upon which their learning experiences are formed. Learning through religious education in Roman Catholic schools is no exception. In religious education, assessment is a valuable tool to support teachers because it provides a picture of what students know and understand about their Catholic faith and where they can be further supported.

In addition to developing their understanding of the Catholic faith, children and young people will also learn respect for, and understanding of, other Christian traditions. They will also come to an appreciation of significant aspects of major world religions, recognising and respecting the sincere search for truth which takes place in other faiths. Where appropriate they will learn similarly about stances for living which are independent of religious belief.
